

The Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) helps pay a portion of the cost of childcare for working families, or families in training or education programs.

Families with low income who meet certain eligibility criteria qualify for the program.

Must be participating in an allowable activity:

- Working (paid employment or self-employed)
- Education or training programs

Temporary allowable activity:

- In situations of homelessness, looking for employment, education or training activities, and housing is considered allowable

Family Responsibility:

- A co-payment is a portion of the child care cost paid by the family
- The co-payment amount is determined on a sliding fee scale based on a family's income and household size
- Co-payment is waived for families at or below 30% of the state median income (SMI)

Age limits:

- Once children are determined eligible, they may receive services until the eligibility period in which they turn 13 years old expires
- A child with special needs may qualify up to age 19

Asset Limits:

- A family's assets cannot exceed $1,000,000
- Monthly income from wages, child support, pensions, veteran's benefits or other sources must be less than the CCAP income limits

Income Limits
