

2.9 DURATIONAL RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

POLICY:

Services must be provided without the imposition of any durational residency requirement or requirement that a physician refer the client. 42 CFR 59.5(b)(5)

PROCEDURE:

Subrecipients and services sites must provide services without the imposition of any durational residence requirement or requiring a physician to refer the client.

Subrecipients and service sites cannot limit receipt of services to only residents from their states.

Subrecipients and service sites can provide services for clients living outside the community and state where the service site is located.

Written clinic policies explicitly address this requirement.
