

Family Voices
North Dakota EMS for Children
CYSHCN and EMS Presentation Quiz

Complete and submit the following quiz with a minimum of 7 correct to receive one (1) hour of LCCR.

1. What is Family Voices?
  - An organization devoted to providing speech therapy for families
  - A clearinghouse for information and education concerning the healthcare of children with additional medical needs and disabilities
  - An all-ages choir

2. What is the current correct terminology for children and youth with special healthcare needs?
  - What the family and patient would like to be classified as
  - Medically complex children
  - Children with additional health care needs
  - Children with disabilities

3. Why should you take time to listen to what the caregiver is telling you about the child?
  - They are experts in their child
  - They are familiar with equipment
  - They know the child's baseline
  - They know more about the child's condition than you do
  - All of the above

4. Where can you find a family's Emergency Information form?
  - On the front of the fridge
  - In the freezer
  - On the counter
  - Above the microwave

5. How can an ambulance service open a dialogue with families who have additional healthcare needs?
  - Hold an open house at the ambulance barn and invite the community
  - Find out if your service area includes any group homes or specialty hospitals and introduce yourself
  - Invite families to bring their children to the ambulance garage to show them around the ambulance and discuss their needs
  - All of the above

6. How to you transfer a patient with contractures?

Straighten the limb first and strap patient to cot

Children are light so only one person is needed to transfer

Move rapidly and get it done as soon as possible

Slowly, not forcing limbs to move, and with assistance of another person

7. When is EMS most often activated for a family with a child who has additional needs?

Equipment failure

Caregiver fatigue

The child has a new caregiver

All of the above

8. When communicating with the child, what two things should you remember?

Physical disabilities do not necessarily imply mental deficits

Communicating with the caregivers is most important

Communicate with the child based on their chronological age

Communicated with the child based on their development age

9. What skills are important to know when caring for a child who has medically complex needs?

Safety suction a trach

Recognize the equipment being used

Care of a chest tube

Place a c-collar

10. When a caregiver maintains that something is wrong with a child despite vitals being normal should you still transport the child?

Yes

No

*+2 Bonus* What makes you the most uncomfortable about caring for a child who has medically complex needs?

Name	Date
------	------