

Food and Lodging License Type Descriptions

Food and Beverage

- Bar or Tavern – an establishment serving beverages or alcoholic drinks only; no food sales or food service
- Beverage - any beverage bottler, manufacturer, processor, or importer who sells or distributes any nonalcoholic beverage in North Dakota
- Child Care Food Establishment – food service prepared in a kitchen owned and operated by a licensed child care provider for more than 30 children, a licensed child care requiring a food establishment license does not include those facilities with 30 or fewer children, occupied as a private residence (in-home), or a child care that serves only snacks, limited items, or occasional cooking projects
- Food Processor – an establishment that commercially processes, manufactures, packages, labels, and/or stores food and drink products intended for human consumption and sells these products to other businesses (wholesale) who then sell the products to the end consumer
- Limited Restaurant – an establishment providing food service restricted to a specific menu
- Mobile Food Unit – a movable motor-driven or self-propelled vehicle that can change location and includes pulling an enclosed trailer or similar portable structure for food service
- Temporary Food Service Establishment – any temporary food service such as a food stand or pushcart that operates at a fixed location for not more than fourteen consecutive days
- Multiple Establishment – an establishment that holds more than one type of food license being operated at the same premises under the same ownership
- Retail Bakery – an establishment selling baked goods to the end consumer
- Retail Meat Market – an establishment used to process, store, or display meat or meat products for retail sale to the end consumer
- Retail Food Store – an establishment preparing, packaging, labeling, or displaying time and temperature control for safety (TCS) food for sale to the end consumer. Retail food also includes holding and displaying commercially processed, prepackaged (TCS) food, federal/state-inspected meat and poultry products, in-shell eggs, and dairy products.
- Restaurant – an establishment providing food service, dining, or catering to the end consumer
- School – a public or private school (K-12) providing food service to students, faculty, staff, or guests of a school
- Vending - any self-service device that dispenses time and temperature control for safety (TCS) food and includes a control for automatic shutoff

Lodging

- Assisted Living Establishment - a building containing a series of at least five living units operated as one entity to provide services for five or more individuals as a place that provides or coordinates individualized support services to accommodate the individual's needs and abilities to maintain as much independence as possible
- Bed and Breakfast - a private home that is used to provide guest accommodations for a charge to the public with not more than seven guest rooms, in which no more than two family-style meals are provided to guests per day
- Lodging - every building or structure that is held out to the public as a place where sleeping accommodations are furnished to transient guests for a charge; does not include single structures with five or fewer guest rooms and ten or fewer total occupants, a series or group of buildings or structures containing five or fewer guest rooms and ten or fewer total occupants

Parks

- Mobile Home Park - any parcel of land containing three or more lots intended for occupancy by mobile homes
- RV Park/Campground - a parcel or tract of land under the control of a person, organization, or government entity where three or more lots are offered for use by members of the public or an organization for rent or lease, including park-owned recreational vehicles held out for rent or lease

Personal Care Services

- Electrologist – a qualified and licensed person proficient in the removal of hair by means of an electric needle
- Electronic Hair Removal Technician – a qualified and licensed person proficient in the removal of hair by means of an electronic process other than an electric needle
- Tanning – an establishment that provides individuals access to a tanning device
- Tattoo and Body Art – an establishment providing body piercing and tattooing; including cosmetic tattooing