

QUIZ: ENHANCED BARRIER PRECAUTIONS IN NURSING HOMES

1. Gowns and gloves are recommended when performing transfers in common areas such as dining or activity rooms where contact with the resident will be short.
  - a. True
  - b. False

2. Enhanced Barrier Precautions include the use of gowns and gloves during which high contact care activities? Select all that apply.
  - a. Bathing/showering
  - b. Feeding in the dining room.
  - c. Providing hygiene
  - d. Changing briefs or assisting with toileting
  - e. Device care or use: central line, urinary catheter, feeding tube, tracheostomy/ventilator.
  - f. Wound care: any skin opening requiring a dressing.

3. Which of the following residents should be placed into Enhanced Barrier Precautions? Select all that apply.
  - a. All residents
  - b. No resident
  - c. Residents infected with multidrug-resistant organisms when contact precautions do not otherwise apply.
  - d. Residents with wounds and/or indwelling devices.

KEY:

1. False
2. A, C, D, E & F
3. C & D