

Vaccination Quiz

- 1.) What statements are true regarding vaccines? (select all that apply)
 - a.) It is a medication that is used to make the body's immune response react against diseases.
 - b.) Some methods to deliver the vaccine include: injection, taken orally, or inhaled through the nose.
 - c.) Severe side effects after receiving a vaccine are quite common.
 - d.) Vaccines are the best way to protect yourself and your patients from preventable disease.
- 2.) Fever and injection site soreness are the most common side effects after receiving a vaccination.
 - a.) True
 - b.) False
- 3.) Staying up to date on important vaccines for healthcare workers can reduce your chance of becoming seriously ill and spreading disease to others.
 - a.) True
 - b.) False

Answer key:

1.) a, b, d

c- mild side effects are common and resolve quickly- Severe side effects are NOT common.

2.) False- injection site soreness is common- fever is not common following a vaccine.

3.) True-Vaccines are a very important step in preventing serious illness and spreading sickness to others.