Goals:

The first meeting of the new iteration of the North Dakota HIV Prevention and Care Advisory Board (NDHPCAB) met Sunday, September 26, 2021 from 1:30-3:00pm CT. The goals were to meet one another, building collective goals for the planning body, and learn more about the roles and responsibilities of the community advisory group.

Topic

Facilitator

Welcome:

Alicia Belay

The NDDoH provided a brief introduction to the NDHPCAG, reiterating the community input structure, mission of the board, and a summary and themes from the townhall. NDDoH and Jason (Interim Ambassador) to formally introduce themselves to everyone and emphasize their role on the board.

Introductions and Inspirations:

Carsen Beckwith

Using MURAL, NDDoH and participants got to know who is on the board and why they have decided to join the space. This included a brief introduction of names, pronouns, roles, and a response to the question “what brings you to this board?”

Building Collective Goals:

Jason Grueneich

As we engage in this community input process, we want to ensure that we are building together and mutually supporting both the health department and participants. This activity – held in both MURAL and via conversations in Teams – asked participants to share what they need in order to feel supportive and participate meaningfully in this group. NDDoH presented some of their own goals, to help stimulate conversation

Resources, Roles, Responsibilities and what’s next

Lindsey VanderBusch and Sarah Weninger

The NDDoH provided some additional guidelines on the expectations, roles, and responsibilities of the planning group.

Closeout:

Alicia Belay

Participants completed a live survey to assess the best times for everyone to meet on a quarterly basis.
