

LIMITATIONS ON AMOUNT, DURATION AND SCOPE

1. The North Dakota Medicaid Program will limit the number of inpatient rehabilitation days to no more than 30 days for each inpatient rehabilitation stay in a distinct part rehabilitation unit of a general hospital. This limit does not apply to individuals for which the Medicaid Program is obligated to pay for all diagnostic and treatment because they are eligible for the EPSDT program.
- 2.a. Occupational therapy ~~visits sessions~~ units for individuals twenty-one years of age and older are limited to no more than ~~30-60 sessions-units~~ per recipient per calendar year unless additional services are medically necessary and the provider requests and receives prior authorization from the department. ~~This limit applies in combination with services delivered by independent occupational therapists.~~

Physical therapy ~~visits sessions~~ units for individuals twenty-one years of age and older are limited to no more than ~~30-60 visits-units~~ per recipient per calendar year unless additional services are medically necessary and the provider requests and receives prior authorization from the department. ~~This limit applies in combination with services delivered by independent physical therapists.~~

Speech therapy ~~visits sessions~~ units for individuals twenty-one years of age and older are limited to no more than ~~30-60 visits-units~~ per recipient per calendar year unless additional services are medically necessary and the provider requests and receives prior authorization from the department. ~~This limit applies in combination with services delivered by independent speech therapists.~~
- b. Occupational therapy units for individuals twenty years of age and younger are limited to no more than 75 units per recipient per calendar year unless additional services are medically necessary and the provider requests and receives prior authorization from the department.

Physical therapy units for individuals twenty years of age and younger are limited to no more than 75 units per recipient per calendar year unless additional services are medically necessary and the provider requests and receives prior authorization from the department.

Speech therapy units for individuals twenty years of age and younger are limited to no more than 75 units per recipient per calendar year unless additional services are medically necessary and the provider requests and receives prior authorization from the department.